GOVERNMENT OF AJMER
Finance Department

NOTIFICATIONS

Ajmer, the 2nd April 1955

No. 3/10/53-Fin.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 4 of the Ajmer Legislative Assembly (Members' Emoluments) Act, 1952 (V of 1952), the Chief Commissioner is pleased to make the following rules namely—

1. These rules may be called the "Ajmer Legislative Assembly (Members' Allowances) Rules, 1955".

2. In these rules unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

- (a) 'Act' means the Ajmer Legislative Assembly (Members' Emoluments) Act, 1952 (V of 1952);
- (b) 'Committee' means a select committee appointed by the Assembly, or a committee appointed by the Speaker, or constituted under the rules of the Assembly;
- (c) 'Daily allowance' means daily allowance at the rate of Rs. 5 per day.
- (d) 'Day' means a calendar day beginning and ending at midnight;
- (e) 'Meeting' means a meeting of the Assembly or a meeting of a committee;
- (f) 'Secretary' means the Secretary to the Assembly;
- (g) 'State Government' means the Chief Commissioner of the State of Ajmer;
- (h) 'Usual place of residence' means when a member's usual place of residence is outside the State of Ajmer, the headquarters of his constituency. (In the case of other members the respective places where they generally reside for at least six months in the year).

3. A member who has to leave his usual place of residence to attend a meeting may draw daily allowance—

- (i) at half rates, for the day before and the day after a continuous sitting of the Assembly or committee, if he arrives at or departs from the place of the meeting on that day.
- (ii) at full rates, for the days of adjournment in the course of a continuous sitting and for holidays which may fall in the course of a continuous sitting provided that if on any such day the member leaves the place of the meeting for his residence or constituency, he may draw either daily allowance for such day or travelling allowance admissible under these rules whichever is less, for his residence or constituency, he may draw either daily allowance for such day or travelling allowance admissible under these rules whichever is less, for his journey from and to the place of the meeting.

Explanation—A sitting shall be deemed to be continuous if the number of days between the last day of a meeting and the first day of another meeting is not more than four.

NOTE (1)—If during residence at the station a member is unable to attend a meeting on account of personal illness daily allowance may be drawn for such period of absence also provided that the member certifies the cause of such absence and remaining in the station. No daily allowance for absence for more than four days shall be allowed under this rule.

NOTE (2)—Where a meeting is adjourned for more than four days and a member leaves the place of the meeting for his normal place of residence, he may draw the travelling allowance admissible under these rules. He shall, however, not be entitled to any daily allowance for the period during which he may be absent from the place of the meeting except such daily allowance as may be admissible under clause (i) above.

4. A member when travelling for the purpose of attending a session or a meeting of a committee shall be entitled to draw travelling allowance at the rates mentioned below:—

- (a) for journeys performed by rail, at single first class fare and where there is no first class accommodation on any particular train, he has the option to travel by air-conditioned accommodation, by paying the difference between the fares for the air-conditioned and first class accommodation from his own pocket. The allowance for incidental expenses in respect of rail journeys will be 12 pies per mile.

- (b) for the journeys performed by road at the rate of 8 annas per mile or at $2\frac{1}{2}$ annas per mile if the journey is performed by taking a single seat in taxi, motor omnibus or motor lorry plying for hire where he has travelled from
 - (i) his usual place of residence, from such place to the place of the meeting and back,
 - (ii) the headquarters of his constituency from the headquarters to the place of meeting and back or to the usual place of residence, as the case may be,
 - (iii) any other place, from such other place and back, but the amount claimed shall not exceed that to which he would have been entitled had the journey been performed from usual place of his residence.

NOTE—While claiming travelling allowance under sub-rule (ii) and (iii) above, the member shall give a declaration that he had gone to the headquarters or to such other place on public business in his capacity as a member and not on private business.

Explanation—A member shall notwithstanding that his election has not been published in the Gazette, be entitled to travelling allowance for the journey performed for the purpose of taking oath in the Assembly.

5. A member, when travelling in the capacity of a Chairman of the Estimates Committees for the purpose of attending a meeting or a conference of the Chairman of the Estimates Committees of the various Legislative Assemblies shall be entitled to draw travelling allowance as a Grade I officer for journeys to and from the place of such meeting or conference and daily allowances at Rs. 5/- per diem within the State of Ajmer and such rates as are admissible to a Grade I Officer drawing pay upto Rs. 750/- per month outside the State of Ajmer.

6. Allowance to be drawn under rule 4 shall not exceed the amount of the allowance that would be admissible to a member for a journey performed by the shortest route.

Explanation—The shortest route shall be that by which a member can most speedily reach his destination by the ordinary mode of travelling provided that if there are two or more such routes that which in the cheapest shall ordinarily be deemed to be the shortest route. In case of doubt in any case, the State Government shall decide which shall be regarded as the shortest route and such decision shall be final.

7. (i) Save as provided in rules 3 and 4 a member may draw travelling allowance only for the journey undertaken by him when first proceeding to attend a session or the meeting of a committee and for his return journey after the close of such session or meeting.

Provided that nothing in these rules shall entitle a member to draw daily and travelling allowances if such member ordinarily resides or carries on business at the place where the session or the meeting of the committee is held.

(ii) If a meeting of a committee is called when the Assembly is in session, a member shall not be entitled to draw travelling allowance for a journey undertaken by him for the purpose of attending such meeting if he has already drawn travelling allowance for journey performed by him for attending the session.

8. In calculating mileage allowance, fraction of a mile shall be omitted from the total of the bill for any one journey but not from the various items which make up the bill.

9. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, a member shall not draw travelling or conveyance allowance admissible under these rules, if for the same journey or the same attendance he has drawn travelling or conveyance allowance as the case may be, from the Government treasury in another capacity.

10. (1) A bill claiming travelling or conveyance allowance or both shall be sent by the member concerned to the Secretary, for being countersigned by him or any other senior-most gazetted officer authorised in this behalf.

(2) Before the bill is submitted, the member concerned shall give a certificate in the following form on the bill:—

"Certified that I have not already drawn travelling allowance for the same journey or conveyance allowance for the same attendance in another capacity."

(3) A member claiming travelling allowance for the journey performed by him for attending the meeting of a committee shall certify that he attended such meeting for at least one whole day.

(4) A member claiming travelling allowance for attending any session or meeting of the committee shall also certify that he does not ordinarily reside or carry on business at the place where the said session or meeting is held.

(5) If a member performs a journey by road in a hired conveyance, he shall certify on the bill that the allowance claimed by him for the journey by road does not exceed the actual cost incurred by him for hiring the conveyance. The certificate shall be in the following form:—

"I certify that I did not perform the road journey for which mileage allowance has been claimed at the higher rates prescribed in the Supplementary Rule 46 by taking a single seat in any public conveyance which ply regularly between fixed points and charges fixed rates."

"I also certify that the journey was not performed in any other vehicle without payments of its hire charges or incurring its running expenses."

"I also certify that I incurred the running expenses on a car for this journey."

11. No claim for travelling, daily or conveyance allowance not preferred within six months of its becoming due shall be paid without the sanction of the Accountant General, Central Revenues.

Explanation—Unless satisfactorily explained all belated claims over one year shall be liable to rejection.

12. If on any point these rules are silent, the relevant rules applicable to a first grade officer will mutatis mutandis apply to a member in so far as they are not inconsistent with the Act and the rules framed thereunder.

13. These rules shall take effect from the 21st day of May 1952.
